Caldera and Oia Tour

A relaxing cruise along the Aegean Sea takes you to smaller volcanic islands surrounding Santorini. Set foot on the crater of a live volcano, indulge in calming hot springs and mud baths, and watch a romantic sunset at the village of Oia.

Hop aboard the traditional King Thiras and set sail for the island of Nea Kameni. Step onto an active volcanic island and climb the gravelly walkway to the top of a crater. You feel a thrill as the area seems to come alive, due to its many active sulfur vents and its lush carpet of red succulent plants.

Continue to the smaller island of Palea Kameni, which boasts comfortable hot springs and calming mud baths. Once your boat drops anchor, you can swim to the shore and immerse yourself in the thermal pools. The closer ashore you swim, the warmer the water becomes.

Next, head to Therasia, a charming islet untouched by mass tourism. Spend your free time enjoying lunch at one of the waterfront tavernas (restaurants) or exploring other areas of the island. Wander the narrow pathways to charismatic villages, discover brightly-painted houses, and absorb the friendly Greek atmosphere.

Back on Santorini, you arrive at the traditional village of Oia, known for its spectacular sunset. As the sun disappears below the horizon, behold vibrant hues of orange and yellow shining across the whitewashed houses and the caldera in the distance.

Day 05: Santorini – Crete

After breakfast at hotel check out and transfer to airport to take the ferry to Crete – Hiraklion. Arrive Hiraklion and check in at hotel. Rest of the day free at leisure.

In about 45 minutes you will discover Spinalonga. Visit this island whose walls hold a thousand and one secrets is a unique experience. The island of Spinalonga, actually a little island – rock just 850 meters round the gulf of Elounda, was firstly inhabited by Christians who used the island as a hiding place during the Roman occupation of Crete. In 1575 the Venetians constructed there a most impressive fortress, which was later converted into a colony for the lepers. The boat will stay for about one hour in the little rock of Spinalonga giving you time to go around and see the island. Victoria Hislop inspired by the history of Spinalonga and wrote her famous bestseller book "The island".

The next stop will be the small and beautiful bay of Kolokytha. Enjoy your time sunbathing and relaxing on the sun decks of the boat or swimming in the clear blue waters while your BBQ lunch is on the grill. After finishing the lunch you will return slowly back to Agios Nikolaos.
