Exploring Vietnam Hanoi and Beyond

Vietnam, a land rich in culture, history, and natural beauty, offers travelers an array of experiences, from its bustling cities to its serene countryside and pristine beaches. At the heart of this incredible country lies Hanoi, the vibrant capital, which serves as both a gateway to the country's past and a starting point for many incredible adventures. In this blog, we'll explore Hanoi's highlights, along with attractions like the Grand Pioneer Cruise in Halong Bay, and other cities that offer unforgettable sightseeing options.

Hanoi: The Timeless Capital

Hanoi, Vietnam's capital, is a city where tradition and modernity coexist harmoniously. Whether you're wandering through its ancient streets or enjoying its contemporary offerings, Hanoi has something for every type of traveler.

1. City Tour on an Army Jeep

One of the best ways to experience Hanoi's rich history and vibrant life is through a jeep city tour. Ride in an open-air jeep through the Old Quarter's narrow streets, past colonial buildings, and visit key landmarks like Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, One Pillar Pagoda, and West Lake. This tour offers a thrilling and immersive journey into Hanoi's past and present.

2. Ninh Binh

Ninh Binh, in northern Vietnam, is known for its stunning landscapes, rich history, and cultural heritage. Dubbed "Halong Bay on land," it features towering limestone karsts, lush rice paddies, and winding rivers. Key attractions include the UNESCO-listed Trang An Landscape Complex, the ancient capital of Hoa Lu, and the scenic Tam Coc boat tour. Hiking up Mua Cave offers breathtaking views. Ninh Binh offers a perfect blend of natural beauty and historical significance, ideal for tranquility and adventure seekers.

3. The Old Quarter in Hanoi

The Old Quarter in Hanoi, near Hoan Kiem Lake, is a vibrant area capturing the city's rich cultural heritage. Its narrow streets, once dedicated to specific trades like silk and ceramics, are now bustling with traditional shops, street food, modern cafes, and boutiques. The colonial-era architecture adds to the charm, and you'll find centuries-old temples, lively markets, and a vibrant street food scene. A must-visit to experience the essence of Hanoi.

4. Food and Culture in Hanoi

No trip to Hanoi is complete without indulging in its legendary street food like Pho, Banh Mi, and Egg Coffee. Besides its food, Hanoi is famous for traditional water puppet shows, a delightful cultural experience originating in northern Vietnam's rice paddies.

Halong Bay: The Grand Pioneer Cruise

Just a few hours from Hanoi, Halong Bay is one of Vietnam's crown jewels and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Characterized by thousands of limestone karsts jutting out from emerald-green waters, Halong Bay is an absolute must-visit for nature lovers.

Beyond Hanoi and Halong Bay: Other Cities to Explore

While Hanoi and Halong Bay provide plenty to see and do, Vietnam has so much more to offer. Here's a look at other cities that should be on your itinerary.

1. Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon)

Located in the southern part of Vietnam, Ho Chi Minh City, or Saigon, is a dynamic metropolis that contrasts sharply with Hanoi. Known for its modern skyline, bustling streets, and historical landmarks, it's a city that showcases the fast-paced side of Vietnam.

Cu Chi Tunnels: Discover the Cu Chi Tunnels, extensive underground tunnels used during the Vietnam War. Visit the War Remnants Museum to see impactful exhibits on the war, and explore Ben Thanh Market, one of Vietnam's largest and most vibrant markets, for great shopping and food.

2. Hoi An

Hoi An, a coastal gem, is a beautifully preserved ancient town that captures Vietnam's historic charm with lantern-lit streets, diverse architecture, and historic temples. Renowned for custom tailoring services and nearby beaches like An Bang and Cua Dai, it offers a blend of cultural heritage and relaxation.

3. Da Nang

Da Nang, a rapidly developing city on Vietnam's central coast, offers a blend of modernity and nature. Highlights include My Khe Beach, known for its long stretches of white sand, Marble Mountains with panoramic views from limestone hills dotted with caves and pagodas, and the Golden Bridge, a stunning pedestrian bridge held up by two giant hands offering breathtaking views of the landscape.

Vietnam's Endless Adventure

Vietnam is a land of contrasts where ancient meets modern, and natural beauty coexists with bustling cities. From Hanoi's vintage jeep tours and lively water parks to the luxurious Grand Pioneer Cruise in Halong Bay and the rich culture of Hoi An and Hue, Vietnam offers adventure, history, culture, and relaxation, promising an unforgettable experience.

Palace on Wheels, India

This year's top honors go to India's best-known train, the Palace on Wheels, which offers a number of itineraries that range from a few days to week-long excursions. Embarking from New Delhi through the Land of Kings, trips take you through the famed Pink City of Jaipur, in Rajasthan, where guests are greeted by majestic UNESCO sites like the Amer Fort as well as 16th century palaces.

Venice Simplon-Orient-Express, Europe

Year after year, the world's most iconic locomotive continues to be a Readers' Choice Awards favorite, and a standard-setter in luxury travel generally. The decadent interiors are a fantasy of 1920s Art Deco design, but it's the impeccable service that keeps this train firmly ensconced in a class of its own. Bags are whisked off the platform and magically reappear in your cabin, no glass ever runs empty, and the beds seem to make themselves anytime you step outside of your cabin. By day, you can revel in the scenery of French countrysides and Swiss mountain scenes.

Rovos Rail, Africa

The extravagant Rovos Rail has traveled throughout Africa for over thirty years. Departing from Pretoria, travelers enjoy exclusive access to a private lounge with Champagne and canapés, and a strict "no cellphone" rule. Classic journeys include three- and four-night trips to Victoria Falls, while the eleven-night "Southern Cross" itinerary offers a mesmerizing trip through South Africa, eSwatini, Mozambique, and Zimbabwe.

Transcantabrico Gran Lujo, Spain

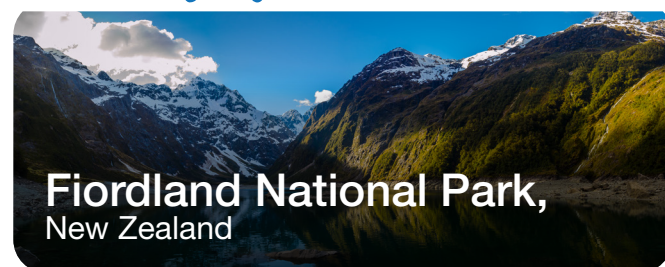

Experience the sights and flavors of Spain's northern coastline on a luxurious sleeper train traveling between San Sebastián and Santiago de Compostela over a week. Enjoy regional cuisine from Basque Country to Galicia. Unique to this train, it stays stationary overnight, allowing for late-night excursions and explorations.

JR Kyushu 36+3, Japan

The train's name reflects Kyushu's status as the 36th-largest island and involves three key stakeholders: passengers, the local community, and JR Kyushu. Offering a weeklong series of one-day itineraries around Kyushu's perimeter, this non-sleeper train provides a stunning way to explore the island, packing multiple stops and towns into each comfortable, productive day.
